Section 8. LHAB Code of Ethics.

- A. Statement of Intent. The Longhorn Alumni Band, Inc. (LHAB), its Officers, and its members must, at all times, comply with the requirements and regulations of the University of Texas at Austin (UT-Austin), the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics (Athletics), the Butler School of Music (Butler School), and Directors of the Longhorn Band (LHB). The LHAB will not condone the activities of members or anyone representing themselves as members who act in a manner that disregards these requirements. The following Code of Ethics (Code) is intended as a guide for members to follow while participating in the LHAB or representing the LHAB. Members uncertain about applying or interpreting any Code of Ethics requirements should seek clarification from the BOD of the LHAB.
- B. Purpose. The LHAB fosters friendships and associations with former members of the LHB. Membership is an honor and privilege intended to respect and honor the traditions and legacy of the LHB and UT-Austin.
- C. Culture. As one LHAB/LHB family, we aim to maintain a culture where everyone is respected, welcome, and included and an environment that is free from discrimination, harassment, and intimidation for any reason.
- D. Participation. Only dues-paying voting members will be allowed to participate in the on-field activities of the LHAB during the annual Band Day reunion. Family and friends may be allowed to participate in other events provided those family and friends comply with the other requirements of this Code. LHAB members and non-members must abide by the rules of the event organizers.
- E. Appearance. While representing LHAB, members must wear the attire mandated by the event organizer. Event organizers will strictly enforce uniform rules at UT facilities.
- F. Conduct. While representing the LHAB, members are expected to conduct themselves professionally.
- G. Prohibited Actions. While representing the LHAB directly or indirectly, including on social media, members must not engage in illegal, discriminatory, or otherwise unprofessional activities or conduct themselves in a way that could be construed as such. LHAB will not tolerate racism, harassment, bigotry, or offensive or derogatory remarks about a person's race, gender, sexual orientation, or identity. Using controlled substances, gambling, fighting, swearing, or excessive alcohol is strictly prohibited while representing the LHAB. LHAB members must not use their membership or appointed/elected positions for private or personal gain.
- H. Financial Accountability. Members with access to LHAB funds in any form are expected to fulfill their fiduciary responsibility to the membership and follow the prescribed procedures for recording, handling, and protecting LHAB funds.
- I. Violations. Ethical conduct is the responsibility of everyone. Anyone who observes another member disregarding the terms or spirit of these standards should immediately report the incident to any Officer, member of the BOD, Drum Major, or Section Leader. Please follow up in writing using the Code of Ethics Violation Form. The Board of Directors will investigate the report, and if a violation is corroborated, appropriate corrective action will be administered by the Board.
